

"By love's pure light and heartfelt plea, return(Name), in harmony. Together live, our souls entwined, so mote it be, by powers combined."

Rekindle your connection with a loved one through a heartfelt come back to me spell specifically designed for reconciliation and understanding. This gentle Wiccan ritual harnesses the power of intention, empathy, and positivity, opening doors to renewed love and unity. ✨

This spell comes from one of our coven's oldest Grimoires, but it's been updated for a modern-day court case.

We can perform this ritual for you and teach you how to do it for yourself.

Who Are We?

Our coven is a family tradition stretching back a long, long time. Our coven Grimoire has been passed between generations, and now, we're adapting it for the digital age.

We aim to bring a new age of digital witchcraft into the modern day. Adapting ancient magick to the present and making it available to spiritual seekers worldwide.

Our coven performs rituals several times a week and does our best to support the spiritually gifted in unlocking their own power.

Let Us Cast For You

Don't let anyone tell you that Wicca is something only the special or few can do. Anyone can learn. However, we can do this entire ritual for you if you'd like.

It's entirely optional to have us cast for you. But if you click here, we'll ask you a few questions about the focus and goal of your spell and perform the entire thing for you.

Note: This is our priority spell request and is not publically available (so please don't spread it around).

There's an option for when you want your ritual performed. With this priority request, we'll put you right at the front, so selecting 'next available' is often the same day.

We might email you with follow-up questions before your ritual is performed, but often (if you've given us enough to work with), we'll perform it that day (or night) and email you once finished.

If you'd like us to cast for you - click here. If not, please continue on, and we'll teach you how to do this ritual yourself.

Casting It Yourself

Note: If you already have your own practices for spellwork, feel free to include them. Always work with your own inner strengths, so feel free to add to our ritual as you like.

Before beginning, we always create a protective circle around our space. Sometimes spiritual work can attract the attention of negative entities or energies.

A protective circle serves as a barrier to shield practitioners from these potentially harmful forces, creating a safe and sacred space for conducting rituals and spellwork.

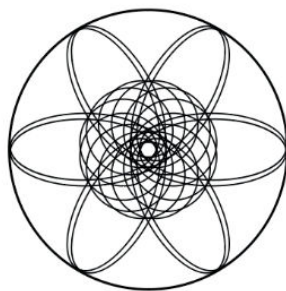

Casting a Protective Circle

Casting a circle is one of the basic practices of witchcraft. To begin any ritual or spell we need a sacred magickal space. In very rare cases, magickal work can attract the attention of unwanted entities and a protective circle prevents them from interfering.

It's simple but important to get right and should be done every time before casting.

A simple circle (for small spells) can be done by placing your finger on the ground (or the air around you) and turning 360 degrees clockwise. Make sure you lean forwards and give yourself plenty of space within the circle to work. Repeat it three times, and while doing so you can chant out loud or within your head:

*I cast this circle three times three. Light protect me, hear my plea. So mote it be!

After you're finished hold an image in your mind's eye of the circle of white light now surrounding you. If you find focusing on the circle difficult, you can draw the circle around you with chalk or salt.

Once your circle is cast you can continue the rest of the ritual.

Once finished, it's good practice to close the circle after you by tracing your finger anti-clockwise along where the circle was.

Now that your circle is prepared, we can perform your ritual.

You Will Need

1. Cloth bag: Any small, clean fabric pouch or bag will do.
2. Rose petals: A handful of fresh or dried rose petals symbolize love and harmony.
3. Lavender buds: These represent healing and tranquility in the relationship.
4. Pink candle: Choose a small pink candle to invoke feelings of affection and warmth.
5. White paper & pen: You'll need these to write your love intention on a piece of paper.

Preparing the Ritual

1. Cleanse the area: Ensure your surroundings are clean and quiet, promoting positive energy for the ritual.
2. Meditate briefly: Spend a few moments reflecting on your intentions, focusing on love, understanding, and willingness to heal.
3. Set up an altar (optional): Create a sacred space by setting up candles, stones, or other objects that resonate with you.
4. Ready the items: Organize all necessary ingredients in front of you—cloth bag, rose petals, lavender buds, pink candle, white paper, and pen—before beginning the ritual.
5. Find a comfortable position: Sit or stand where you feel at ease and can focus on performing the spell without distractions.

Casting the Spell

1. Light the pink candle: Focus on your intention for love and reconciliation as you light it.
2. Write your intention: Write down your desire to reconnect with the person in question on the white paper. Be honest and clear about your feelings.
3. Recite the Wiccan chant: While holding the written intentions in your hands over the candle flame (without burning it), recite this chant: “By love’s pure light and heartfelt plea, return(Name), in harmony. Together live, our souls entwined, so mote it be, by powers combined.”
4. Mix ingredients in the cloth bag: Place rose petals and lavender buds on top of the written intention, fold or roll it gently, then place everything into the cloth bag.
5. Seal the energy: Hold the cloth bag containing all items between both hands while visualizing a loving reunion between you and this special person in a harmonious environment.
6. Meditate on your intention: Keep focusing on positive connection and understanding as you continue allowing any fears or doubts to dissipate.
7. Store the cloth bag safely: Find a secure location where it won’t be disturbed (preferably near your bed) to help amplify its influence.

Making Your Spell More Potent

If you feel like you need to see a faster result or need more strength in your cast, there are some things you can do to make your cast the most potent.

1. Choose the right timing: Perform the spell during a new moon or waxing moon phase, as this period encourages growth and strengthens your intentions for reconciliation.
 2. Personalize your chant: Instead of a generic chant, try writing your own rhyming lines that encompass your unique feelings and desires for the relationship, making your intention more focused and powerful.
 3. Add meaningful objects: Enhance the energy of the spell by including items that hold sentimental value in your relationship, such as a small token gifted to you by this person or a photograph of special memories together.
 4. Enhance with crystals: Utilize the healing properties of crystals like rose quartz and amethyst by placing them on your altar or inside the cloth bag with other spell ingredients, amplifying their influence on love and emotional healing.
 5. Incorporate visualization techniques: As you cast the spell, vividly imagine scenes depicting positive interactions between you and your loved one—doing so deepens emotional connection and strengthens manifestation.
- We have a "magick ability test" created to help you find your natural affinities. If you're struggling to see results with your spell casting - take the test, and sometimes a small tweak to make a ritual fit more into your natural strengths can have a big impact.

A common practice with spellwork like this is to re-cast the spell. We can re-cast this spell for you, but please wait for at least 7-days before requesting a re-cast.

Important

No matter if you're adding these spells to your own book of shadows or having us cast it for you. Spellwork like this should be considered for entertainment purposes only.

We can't guarantee results (nobody can) and our goal is to work with the universe and its energy.

There are many different beliefs about how Wicca can (or should) work. We won't press our beliefs on you but witchcraft is not intended to replace legal, financial, medical or professional advice.

Use your spellwork practices to support you. Don't let it hold you back.
